

Acadiaville Columbarium

ORGANIZATION

The Acadiaville Columbarium is managed by the Acadiaville Cemetery Society and is situated adjacent to the Stella Maris Pastoral Unit office. The Acadiaville Cemetery Society is a registered non-profit organization dedicated to the care and maintenance of the cemetery grounds. The Society also promotes benevolent and philanthropic objectives. The Columbarium is a central feature structure constructed of polished granite comprising of 112 niches for the placement of cremated remains.

VISION STATEMENT

To make continual improvements to cemetery grounds and support community programming initiatives.

Niches

The Columbarium niches are available to members of the "community at large" subject to Stella Maris Pastoral Unit Cemetery guidelines. Fees include Cemetery Care, engraved memorial tile, Niche and internment. Each niche measures 10.5" x 10.5" x 11". The polished granite tile is sent for engraving at time of order. The engraving fee will include the black granite tile, engraving and courier service fees. Cemetery care fees are set by the Pastoral Unit Cemetery Committee.

"By continually investing within ourselves, by sharing our knowledge with others and by taking pride in our work, we can build something beautiful for the benefit of our community and beyond."
